WILL MERGE INTO REGULAR SESSION

Holiday Recess is Only Chance For Rest For Congress.

ONE MEASURE PASSED.

Regular Session Begins Next Week —Debate on Currency Bill Opens in Senate Today.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The long special session of congress promises to merge into the regular winter session next Monday, with scarcely a ripple of interest in Washington. There has been a rearranging of plans on the part of President Wilson and the congressional leaders since it became apparent that consideration of the currency bill would continue into the regular session, and the promised activities along new lines, such as antitrust and railroad legislation, probably will not manifest themselves until next year.

Congres is aleady looking forward to the first chance it will have had to ke a complete recess from work. The currency debate that opened in the Senate today, and all of the legislative work that comes with a new regular session, will be laid aside December 20 for a full two-weeks' vacation, the first since the extra session began last April. President Wilson's determination to drop official duties during the period will insure a complete cessation of work at the capitol

Details of the antitrust program, and the steps to be taken to strengthen the laws controlling railroads and railroad rates, have not been worked out and will not be pressed until after the success of the currency h has become assuresd. President Wilson's chief advisers in the Senate are confident that a compromise will be reached in that body, insuring support of a currency bill that can be accepted by the House and by the President. Until the debate and exchange of views has developed general support for an administration bill, however, other big legislative subjects will not be allowed to distract attention.

The long, special session, which closes at noon next Monday, has accomplished but one big piece of legislation, the tariff revision bill. The thorough consideration that has been given to currency reform, however, and the scope of the "educational campaign" waged in behalf of the administration bill, has made Democratic leaders hopeful that the currency bill can be passed in January, after but a few weeks of open discussion.

The public debate which opened with Senator Owen's speech today will continue but three days this week, and will be interrupted the following week for consideration of the Hetch-Hetchy bill, and later for the Christmas recess. When the consideration of currency legislation is resumed January 5, it is the plan of Democratic leaders to bring the Senate as rapidly as possible to a decision upon the vital principles at issue between the various factions .

The President's keen interest in the enactment of new antitrust legislation has manifested itself through his conferences recently with House and Senate lawyers who have made a special study of the Sherman law an its limitations. He has not gone to the length of attempting to discuss definite legislative plans, however, and it is understood by leaders of both houses that the work during the early weeks of the new session is to be of a preliminary character, designed to bring Congress and the President to an understanding of what is needed and the scope of the bills that should be introduced.

Members of the Senate are closely studying the two drafts of the Currency bill admitted to the Senate Saturday by the factions of the Banking and Currency committee. It is apparent from the close attention that has been given for several weeks to the currency problems by Senators of both parties, that many of them will take an active part in the fight that is to follow on the floor. It is believed no effort will be made, at least, for some time after the debate starts, to fix any definite time for its conclusion.

The speeches of Senators Owen and Hitchcock, both Democrats, leaders of the two factions of the Senate committee, probably will occupy the first three days of this week. Other discussion of the bill will be put off until the regular session has begun nex Monday.

THE GAYETY THIS WEEK.

The Gayety Theater in Washington this week presents, "Vanity Fair," a William S. Clark musical burlesque of New York life, in two separate parts. Billie Richie, a noted impersonator, will appear in "Seeing New York," the first burlesque, in the role of Bill Smith, from nowhere, and Rich McAllister, assitant comedian as Perkins, the pert bellboy. A feature of the first act of "Seeing New York" is a burlesque of "Julius Caesar" by Misses Benn, Rhodes, Norton and Steve.

"Seeing New York" is written in two acts of three scenes each, and introduces more than twenty musical numbers including late airs. Billie Richie staged and produced it and the musical numbers were written by Ed Hutchinson. Act II features the farce, "A Night in an English Music Hall," which gained great popularity for Richie in English theaters.

"A Night on Broadway," the second burlesque, is in one act of three scenes. It introduces two ensemble numbers in which all of the principals and chorus of twenty young women appear, and one specialty by Richie and five other principals. Lena La Couvier, soprano, is billed for several musical numbers.

MONEY IS BEING RETURNED TO BANK

Frank A. Munsey's Generous Act in Interest of Depositors.

A SAVING OF $25,000.00.

Persons Who Withdrew Their Money During Run on U. S. Trust Co., Will Get Interest.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Announcement was made this morning by Frank A. Munsey of a big, impressive, generous act in the interest of the depositors of the United States Trust Company.

It means a direct saving of $25,000 to the depositors, which is in effect a gift for which Mr. Munsey makes himself personally responsible.

Depositors who withdrew their money during the run will not be deprived of the interest earnings that had accured to their credit. If they restore the accounts by December 1, their status on the books will be preserved as if there had never been any withdrawals.

That is, accounts which would have been entitled to interest earnings at some definite date in the future, but that forfeited that right when they were withdrawn in advance, will be put back in their old relation, and no interest will be deducted, not even that for the time the money was actually out of the bank.

This proposition was made today by Mr. Munsy personally, and as president of the Munsey Trust Company. It has been his wish that nobody in Washington should suffer in any way from the flurry that started so unexpectedly and was suppressed in such a dramatic way at the close of last week. In order to save the army of the United States Trust Company's depositors from even the loss of the interest that they would have forfeited on their accounts, Mr. Munsey made this announcement, and issued orders for carrying its purpose into effect.

Money was pouring into all the offices of the consolidated institution, the withdrawn accounts being reinstated in great numbers long before it was known that they were to be put back in their former relation, and that no loss of interest rights would be incurred. All will, of course, be treated alike; those that came back before te announcemen was made, and those coming afterward.

PROPOSED POULTRY SHOW.

Meeting Tuesday Evening at Five O'clock to Settle Question.

Despite every effort on the part of those who are trying to get Alexandria's first poultry show under way, there has been a noticeable lack of interest shown by local poultry raisers. Notices have been put in the papers and those at the head of the movement have seen many of the nearby poultry raisers and requested them to attend the meetings but, while most of them have expressed interest, practically none have attended the meetings, and many people seem to think that only those especially invited are welcome. This, of course, is not the case. Everyone interested in poultry or pigeons, whether they are raisers or not, and all interested in having a show in Alexandria, are not only welcome, but their cooperation is needed, and they are earnestly requested to be present, at the meeting to be held at 102 south Washington street at 5 o'clock Tuesday, evening, November 25th.

A number of our merchants have agreed to offer specials and a small amount of stock has been sold, but if the show is to be carried to a successful conclusion, the breeders and raisers of the neighborhood must "come in" at once, and if it is not possible for them to attend the meeting Tuesday, at least drop a postal to H. White at 102 south Washington street, announcing that they are interested and will probably exhibit.

SOLDIER BOYS IN COUNTY.

New Military Company to be Organized at Falls Church

The organization of a company of infantry in the state militia, to be recruited in Alexandria county, with headquarters at Falls Church, will be effected on Saturday night at O Fellow's Hall, Falls Church, w a meeting will be held for this purpose.

Capt. J. Brad Beverley, of Luray, recruiting officer, has been in Alexandria county for the past week looking over the situation, and has made an official report to Col. Robt. F. Leedy that he finds the situation very encouraging and believes that a full company can be maintained in the county.

Among those who have offered encouragement to the plan are Mayor H. A. Fellows, George W. Hawkshurst, Dr. George T. Mankin, R. C L. Moncure, John Bethune, and John G Herndon. Many of the younger men expresse the belief that from Falls Church, Clarendon, Ballston, Rosslyn and other towns one hundred enlistments can be gotten if necessary.

LAWLER'S FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services for John Lawler, a Confederate veteran, were held yesterday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Isaac Sinclair, 315 Queen street. They were conducted by the Rev. Father Lecke, of St. Mary's Church. Interment was in Bethel cemetery.

A Latter Day Romance

The Wonderful Expansion of the Cushing Oil Field Furnishes One.

THE BIGGEST WELL YET.

B. B. Jones Brings in a 4,800 Barrel Well Friday Night.

From the Cushing (Okla.) Daily Citizen Oct. 25.

Two years is a very short period of time, and wherein great changes have been wrought in that period and when one looks back it seems still shorter

When those of us who were here two years ago this twenty-fifth day of October contemplate the wonderful changes that have taken place since then we were startled, astounded. It does not seem possible that so much can have occurred. To one who has not been on the ground it seems entirely impossible and unreal. Such a one cannot appreciate it, cannot believe it It is indeed a romance seemingly as impossible as the adventures of "The Sleuth." Never has the truth of the old adage, "Truth is stranger than fiction," been more graphically illustrated than in the history of Cushing and its great oil and gas field, the greatest in the world for the past two years

Less than two years ago Cushing was a nice little village of 1,000 people, content to quietly earn a modest livelihood. Today it is a bustling city of $5,000 people, eagerly rushing on, a city teeming with energy and activity and possessing possibilities beyond the imagination of the citizen of two years ago. Then we were content if the cotton crop was good, now we reach out for the earth.

Less than two years ago, the section to the east was almost a wilderness in which a half hundred people struggled for existence, yes struggled. Today 8,000 human engines are pulsating with energy and thousands and tens of thousands of dollars are being added daily to the wealth of the country. Then it was a poverty stricken district, now it is one of the wealthiest sections in the land.

Twenty months ago there were men who had begun to stake their last hundred dollars on the oil game, who now count their wealth by the millions.

Twenty months ago there were men, hardworking and honorable men, who could scarcely pay cash for a box of matches, who now live in ease and comfort, in beautiful homes, who drive their automobiles, some of them have indeed become magnates, as it were, in the financial circles. No romance has been portrayed so much of ideal as has been real in and around Cushing the past two years.

A year ago last March the Wheeler No. 1 well was brought in and it is a good well. But many there were who believed, and expressed the belief, that the field would not last long. The question asked was, "do you think it will ast 60 days?" Newspapers and citizens of other towns attempted to belittle the field, making false reports and indeed poor-poohed the idea of there being any oil field here. Many of our own people were skeptical. But the oil men knew and the work went on. More and better wells were brought in The territory, oil territory, was extended more and more until today it covers more than sixty square miles, containing hundreds of producing wells, and the limits and boundaries of the field have not yet been determined.

In addition to the eastern field there is now the field to the north of the city, or the Berry Pool, where active operations are now going on, and which promises to be as productive as the eastern portion of the field.

In these latter days has come the great development in the northern part of the field on both sides of the river. Here are found wells producing from 500 to 3,000 barrels of oil a number of large gas wells. Just now the greatest activity is found in this part of the field and hundreds of people are flocking thither. The fifth oil town is already a hustling town.

And now has happened the biggest thing of all. The greatest well yet brought in. This is the B. B. Jones well on the Sarah Rector lease, which came in late Friday night, producing two hundred barrels nearly natural every hour, or 4,800 barrels a day. This well is located on section 5-18-7, being in the southwest corner of the southwest quarter of the section.

Will it last? Has it lasted? It has grown from the start and has always kept growing, ever getting better and bigger. With the new developments near the city and the certainty of oil being there, is it not possible even to conjecture as to the limits of the Cushing Oil and Gas Field, the most wonderful in America

FEDERAL ARMY IS REPULSED

Hundreds Slain in Two Days' Engagement in Mexico.

TREASURY IS EMPTY.

Huerta, With Ruin Staring Him in The Face, Still Manifests Defiance to United States.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Twenty thousand Mexicans have concluded a battle lasting two days and was the most decisive of the Carrahza revolt. The rebels were victors and the supporters of Provisional President Huerta put to flight. The loss on both sides is declared to have been heavy, hundreds being killed. More federal troop trains were blown up by the constitutionalists, it is declared.

With the national treasury practically empty, Huerta remains serene and scoffs at the idea of the United States intervening in Mexico. The suggestion of a blockade is received skeptically by the dictator. It is expected that today the new congress will take up the ratification of the Presidential elections, and it is understood that these will be annulled, that new elections will be held and that Huerta will remain at the head of affairs.

At Washington a brief conference was held, last night, between Sir William Tyrrell, private secretary to Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and President Wilson, which is believed to have had a bearing on the situation in the neighboring republic. It was announced, however, that the subject discussed was personal and private.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 24.—With a battle line twelve miles long, from Bauche, on the west, to Lamesa, on the east, twelve miles south of Juarez, Pancho Villa's rebel army has overawed and driven back the Federal army, which menaced Juarez.

A federal troop train arrived at Tierra Blanca, but the federals were driven back before a general engagement took place, and Villa says the entire federal force is in full retreat. Tierra Blanca is only eighteen miles from Juarez.

Panic-stricken by the sight of the vanguard of the rebel army, Villa declares the federal army, advancing to attack Juarez, retreated in haste shortly before dark.

The euchre and entertainment that was to have been given by Alexandria Division A. O. K., in Lyceum Hall, Tuesday, November 25, has been postponed to Wednesday December 3.

SUNSHINE THIS WEEK.

Moderate Temperatures Are in Prospect, Says Forecast.

Several more days of moderate weather, with sunshine, are in prospect for most of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, according to the Weather Bureau weekly forecast:

"Rains are indicated Monday in the Southern States," says the forecast," but with this exception, generally fair weather will prevail for several days east of the Rocky Mountains, and probably well toward the end of the week over the eastern portion of the country and also the Southwest. Temperatures will be moderate over the west central portions and with a decided fall over the northeastern districts.

"Present pressure distribution indicates the approach of another disturbance to the far northwest, bringing with it rains over the North Pacific States during the early days of the week, and probably local snows and rains over the extreme Northwest a day or so later. After the middle of the week these unsettled conditions will drift eastward, probably reaching through the lake region into the St. Lawrence Valley toward the end of the week.

"The northwestern disturbance will be followed by rising pressure and falling temperature, beginning by Tuesday or Wednesday over the extreme Northwest, and extending eastward to the north Atlantic States by the end of the week.

"There are no present indications of any very low temperatures.

"Over the middle and Southern districts west of the Rocky Mountains geneally fair weather will prevail, with somewhat higher temperatures early in the week."

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

Grocer's Clerk Assaulted in Southeastern Section.

Some excitement was caused late Saturday night in the southeastern section of the city by a small boy whose disorderly conduct towards a storekeeper, brought his father and elder brother into a difficulty. As is the custom of many youths in that section of the city, the boy is one of those who gather at street corners, and Saturday night he armed himself with a shrill whistle which he occasionally sounded to the great annoyance of the proprietor of the store as well as to his patrons. When the proprietor attempted to force him from the premises the youth picked up a missle for the purpose of hurling it at the former. The boy's mother seemed powerless to subdue her offspring, and later an elder brother and the father of the boy appeared on the scene. In the meantime a young man employed in the store telephoned for the police. This incensed the elder brother, and when the attache went on the pavement to get water from a pump he was assaulted by the former, the father urging on the fight.

The case came before the Police Court this morning when the younger man was assessed ten dollars. The case against his father was continued until tomorrow morning.

The gathering of disorderly boys and younger men in that section of the city is a subject of chronic complaint, and the circumstances in connection with the above case are published in order that parents and others interested may avoid trouble which occasionally so occur when scription of the man was asked in their children gather at certain points order to identify the body in case it and annoy their elders. was discovered.

UNCERTAINTIES OF PANAMA CANAL

No Definite Date Has Been Fixed For Opening Great Waterway.

TO DREDGE CHANNEL.

Working to Open Culebra Cut—Mechanism of Locks and Dams Tested With Perfect Success.

Washington, Nov. 24.—No definite date for the official opening of the Panama Canal is set in the annual report of Colonel George Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the canal commission, which has just been submitted to Secretary Garrison. Neither is there any prediction of when the ships may first pass from ocean to ocean. The first day of the canal's actual operation still depends upon the treacherous slides of Culebra Cut and how fast the dredges can keep the channels open.

"It has been the general belief that the effect of the water in the cut would tend to retard slides, and experience below the Gatun Locks Justifies this belief,' 'said Colonel Goethals. "On the other hand, the geologists is of the opnion that the water, may, to some extent develop new slides. Again, much ado was made in 1909 over the clamy character of the rock on the Isthmus, through which water flows quite rapidly, in consequence of which the question was raised that the lake might leak out through seams and crevices.

"If these things are liable to occur, the sooner the better, if the official opening of the canal is to occur January 1. 1915; for if water were not admitted this fall, but was deferred until May 1, 1914, the full height could not be reached until October, 1914, leaving little time for the determination of these questions. These considerations led to the conclusion that the water should be turned into the cut at the earliest date practicable for getting dredges to work on the slides.

"The present plans, however, are based upon the blowing up of the Gamboa dike on October 10, its removal by dredges immediately thereafter, the transfer of two suction dredges and the ladder dredge of the Cucarracha Slide, the smaller dipper dredge to work on the other side until the full width of the channel is attained, and the passage of vessels through the canal as soon as channels of full depth and of sufficient width have been secured.

"Before boats can be passed it will be necessary to remove the Gamboa dike by dredges and to remove the slides as already outlined. The passage of commercial vessels is dependent, therefore, upon the time when proper channels can be dredged through the slides; should additional ones occur, they will necessarily advance the date when this will be accomplished."

The canal proper, inclusive of the approaches, machine shops, andwarehouses and great ocean docks at either end, would have been completed during the last fiscale year but for the extensive slides in the Culebra Cut And to deal with the great problems involved in the removal of the slides no effective way was found except the bodily displacement of vast hills.

The slides and breaks increased as the cut was deepened.

"No treatment has proven effective for slides when once developed, except that of excavating and hauling away material from the moving mass until the slide comes to rest, or until the angle of repose for particular material in motion is reached," said Colonel Goethals."

HEARING OF RATE CASE

Alexandria Representative Appears Before Interstate Commerce Commission

Alexandria merchants, through the Chamber of Commerce, will be represented at the hearing which commences today before the Interstate Commerce Commission, when the petition of the railways of the United States for a general increase of freight rates, will be considered. The commission has agreed to allow a portion of the time of the hearing for the presentation of the views of the shippers from here. Alexandria is vitally interested in the rate question as its large wholesale houses, glass factories and fertilizer plants depend on a low freight rate for their existance.

The Chamber's fight will be particularly addressed to the increase in the rates on coal as an increased cost to the coal consumers will mean many thousand dollars increased operating expense.

The Chamber of Commerce will be represented at the hearing by James T. Preston, who is a traffic man of long experience and familiar with all the elements that enter into the making of freight rates.

Large Attendance at Second Presbyterian Church at Both Services Yesterday.

Many persons attended the Second Presbyterian Church yesterday and considerable interest was manifested, the aftermath of the special services held last week. Many persons, already members of different churches in the city, announced their purpose to lead more consecrated lives in the future, while others, not members of any communion, will identify themselves with churches. Cards were distributed last night for all such to sign and return to ushers at the doors at the close of the services.

Rev. Samuel Garmon, missionary to Brazil, will deliver an illustrated lecture on work in that country on Wednesday night next.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

BODY RESTS IN VIRGINIA.

Remains of Prominent Minister Buried In Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 24. — The funeral services of the Rev. Wm. Frost Bishop, D. D., a prominent Presbyterian minister, who was born in Virginia, and who died on Tuesday in Louisville, Ky, was held Saturday at 12:30 o'clock in the Second Presbyterian Church in Petersburg. The remains, which were brought from Louisville by his family, were interred in the Blandford cemetery.

In Louisville services were held for Dr Bishop on Friday, at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary The services were conducted by the Rev. J. Gray McAllister, D. D., formerly president of Hampden-Sidney College, assisted by the Rev. Baldwin A. Pendleton, D.D., the Rev. A. D. Bruce, of the Baptist church, and other ministers . Following the Louisville services the remains were brought to Petersburg by Dr. Bishop's son, Bartlett R. Bishop, of St. Louis, and his daughter, Mrs. Edwin Russel Andrews, of Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

Dr. Bishop, who was 61 years old. was a leader in the Presbyterian church of the United States. He was born in Virginia near Petersburg, and for ten years occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at Ashland, Va. Afterwards he conducted charges in St. Louis and Kansas City. Several years ago his health failed and he was forced to quit the active ministry. He then moved to Louisville and accepted an offer to become a member of the Courier-Journal.

Shot While Sleeping.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 24.—Solomon Goodman, living at 606 Effingham street, Portsmouth, was mysteriously shot in the left temple in his home at 12 o'clock Friday night as he was sleeping. He is now in King's Daughter's Hospital, and probably will lose the sight of his left eye. A bullet is imbedded in his head. No report was made of the shooting to the police, who got no news of it until today, after Goodman had been in the hospital several hours. He says he does not know who shot him. All he knows is that he was awakened by what he thought was a blow on his head. When he aroused fully he found he had been shot. None of his family is able to offer any explanation.

Want Battlefield Park.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 24.—The Petersburg Chamber of Commerce will ask Congress to buy the Carter farm, in Prince George county, a short distance from Petersburg, for a battlefield park. The Chamber has obtained an option on the farm for one year at the price of $25,000. The farm contains 90 acres and on it is a handsome monument erected by the State of Massachusetts in honor of the soldiers of the old Bay State who were killed in battle in front of Petersburg during the war between the States.

Senator Claude A. Swanson will push the matter in Congress.

LINEMAN MEETS DEATH.

Hooked to Pole, and Hands and Feet Fastened to Wires, He Forms Short Circuit.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 24.— Kelly Crabtree, lineman for the Interstate Telephone Company, is at the hospital in this city, in a dying condition, from injuries received by coming in contact with live wires.

Crabtree was working on a telephone pole on Mangum street when his feet slipped and the near electrocution came by his catching hold of a live wire to keep himself from falling. His belt was hooped around the pole and saved him from falling to the pavement below. Catching one wire with his right hand and placing his foot on another live wire, over 2,000 volts of electricity shot through his body. He was unable to turn the wires loose, and hung in that position until a message to the power-house succeeded in getting the current turned off. Firemen from a nearby station climbed the pole and succeeded in geting him to the ground.

Life was nearly extinct when physicians arrived, and no hopes whatever were entertained for saving his life. However, a message to the Durham Traction Company office brought a pulmotor to the scene. The machine was put to work and late this afternoon the injured man was better.

The pole on which Crabtree was working, is the same one on which Robert Rigsbee, a lineaman, was electrocuted last year.

WRIT IS GRANTED.

Railroad Appeals From Verdict in False Arrest Case.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—A writ of error and supersedeas was granted by the Supreme Court of Appeals Saturday in the case of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, against Perdue, from the Court of Law and Chancery of Roanoke, in which Perdue was granted judgment against the railroad for damages in the sum of $750 for false arrest.

The record states that in September, 1912 while a fair was in progress in Roanoke, Perdue was a visitor in that city. After visiting the fair he returned to the station to take a train to his home at a nearby station. According to the railroad company he attempted go through the gate intended for the exit of passengers from the incoming trains, and was somewhat disorderly in pushing his way through the crowd, and for this conduct was placed under arrest The arrest was made by an officer of the Baldwin Detective agency, recognized as an officer for the purpose of enforcing the law by the courts of that city, and employed by the railroad to aid in handling the fair crowds. The station gate-keeper assisted in the arrest.

Perdue insisted that it was important for him to catch his train, and offered to give the officer collateral for his appearance, which was declined. On the way to the station-house there was somewhat of a scuffle the officer bringing his prisoner only with the aid of his club. At the station-house Perdue was bailed, and in court on the following day was dismissed. Then he sued both the officer and railroad for false arrest. At the trial a nonsuit was entered as to the officer, and damages awarded by the jury in the sum of $750 against the railroad.

NO CHURCH MERGER.

Westminster Presbytertian Congregation of Richmond Favors The Union.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—There will be no union of Grace Street Presbyterian Church and Westminster Presbyterian Church, the congregation of Grace street Church yesterday morning having tabled indefinitely the report of the joint committee from the two churches to unite. Westminster church,by a vote of 74 to 8, favored the union.

The result of the action taken by the two churches at a meeting following immediately after the morning service is that each church will be separtely maintained. Westminster church will remain as now, with Rev. J. Y. Fair, D. D., as pastor. Grace street church whose property was recently sold, and whose pastor. Rev. D. Clay Lilly, resigned to become field secretary of the missionary movement of the Presbyterian church in the South, will seek a new pastor and a location in which to build a new house of worship.

Opposition to the union of the churches, yesterday's vote showed, was slight in Westminster church there being but eight voices against the adoption of the report of the joint committee petitioning East Hanover Presbytery to merge the churches. The opposition at Grace street church appeared to have been well organized,and when a motion was made to table the report and to discharge the committee, the vote was unanimous

JAPS WITHOUT RELIGION.

Their Pagan Faith Destroyed by Christians, They Degenerate into Agnostics.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—On information that 85 per cent. of the 6,000 students of the Imperial university Tokyo,Japan,have been redeemed from paganism only to become agnostics, alumni of the divinity school of the university of Chicago, have announced that they will rebuild the Baptist tabernacle at Tokio, destroyed by fire last spring.

According to Dean Shailer Matthews, of the divinity school, the tabernacle site is close to the buildings of the Imperal University and its influence is needed to check the tide of agnosticism. Eight thousand of the $30,000 needed is said to have been pledged.

Richmond, Nov. 24.—Accompanied by R. L. Fleming, the body of Robert F. Lee was taken to Alexandria this afternoon for burial. The deceased was 63 years old, and a cousin of General Robert E. Lee. He was found dead in bed this morning, following a threatened attack of pneumonia.

SEEK SUFFRAGE

State T. P. A., to Introduce Cridlin Bill in Next Session of General Assembly.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Arrangements to introduce and advocate in the next General Assembly the Cridlin Travelers' Suffrage bill were made last night at a joint meeting of the state board of directors of the Travelers' Protective Association and of the directors of Post A. In the upper branch of the Legislature Senator H. C. Featherstone, chairman of the state association legislative committee, will become patron of the measure, while a member of the Richmond delegation, yet to be chosen will father the bill in the House. It provides that traveling salesmen may vote anywhere in Virginia if they can vote at home.

At the meeting Post A reported that 136 members had been secured for the association during the week just closed in the course of a swift and furious campaign. The local post is jubilant over the success of the canvas for new members and received the warm congratulations of the state directors.

As guests Saturday night the boards had the national president, George H. Armstrong, of Merchantville, N. J.; C. W. Saunders, the national first vice-president, of Richmond; Alexander McQuilkin, state secretary of the Pennsylvania division; President W. H. Jones, of Danville post; Robert D. Davis, of Norfolk, chairman of the membership committee; A. D. Brockett, of Alexandria, chairman of the State Railroad committee, and George W. Rogers, of Richmond, chairman of the state press committee.

The state directors present were: W. H. Brown, C.D. Coleman, M. S Valentine, B. H. Randolph, .S J. Allen all of Richmond; D W. Sale, of Lynchburg; J. Y. Williams, of Alexandria F S. Hancock, of Norfolk; H. L. Cross of Suffolk, and S. C. Johnson, of Roanoke

Farmer Kills Himself.

Culpeper, Va., Nov. 24.—Thomas Burnett, a prosperous miller and farmer, yesterday morning committed suicide at his home a few miles from here, by blowing his head off with a shot gun. He went into the barn, held the gun in his right hand, while with a lath he pressed the trigger. He appeared cheerfully this morning, his family said. He leaves a wife and five children.

Killed By a Colt.

Gordinsville, Va., Nov. 24.—Robert Corbin, a prosperous and highly esteemed farmer living near Orange Court House, was fatally hurt by being kicked in the abdomen by a colt Friday.

Mr. Corbin was hitching the colt to a buggy, and in passing behind it was knocked down and rendered unconscious. The injured man was taken to Orange and placed aboard a fast train to be taken to Charlottesville, but died before reaching his destination.

The victim leaves a widow and five children. His untimely death has caused general sorrow in the community in which he lived.

Burial of Captain Carter.

Winchester, Va., Nov. 24—The body of Capt. William Page Carter, 7[illegible] years old, who died Thursday in Washington, where he had been making his home with his brother, Dr. C Shirley Carter, since the death of his wife about 12 years ago, was interred Sunday in the historic graveyard at Old Chapel, near Millwood, Clarke county. Captain Carter was born and reared in that county, and for many years he owned the famous estate known as the Glen, near Millwood. He was an artillery officer in General Jubal A. Early's corps in the Confederate Army, and was wounded seven times during the civil war once being shot trough both lungs He was the author of a book of poems which has been widely circulated Captain Carter was a second cousin of Thomas Nelson Page. His brother, Dr. C. Shirley Carter and a niece and nephew are his nearest relatives

CIGARETTE COSTS BOY LIFE.

Tries to Roll it With Gun in Hands And Shatters Leg.

Milwaukee, Nov. 24.—Anton Bunk-aged 17, of South Milwaukee, has paid for a cigarette with his life. He died yesterday at Columbia Hospital his left leg amputated as a result of a gunshot wound received Sunday morning in Sharpshooter's Park northwest of the city. when he tried to roll a cigarette with the gun in his hands. Death was directly due to shock and gangrene poisoning.

MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECY.

The oft-quoted lines of Mother Shipton—

Carriages with horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe—

Have their ample fulfillment in the automobile and motorcycle era in which we live.

About a dozen people were killed in accidents to these modern contrivances in different sections of the country yesterday.

Most of the disasters were undoubtedly caused by running the machines at dangerous speed, or in attempting to cross tracks in front of approaching trains. Four soldiers had charge of an automobile and attempted to outrun a steam railway train when their machine skidded and the quartette were killed.

Automobiles and motorcycles are probably no more dangerous than other means of transportation if proper care is taken and the devices are operated at prudent gaits but as long as joy riding and attempts to break records are indulged in they will continue to collect a heavy death toll.

For a long time Mother Shipton in her prohpecy was supposed to have seen the advent of the steam train in the vista. It is now thought the seeress got a glimpse of automobiles and and motorcycles.

SANGUINARY SCENES IN MEXICO.

The old story to the effect that Nero fiddled while Rome was burning has often been alluded to in chronicling subsequent events on this storm-tossed panet. The dictator was one of the spectators at a bull fight yesterday.

Dispatches today tell of fresh disasters to the federal army, many members of which have been killed in the clash of war and by the dynamiting of trains. In addition to these horrors, the Mexican treasury is empty and the credit of the nation so seriously impaired as to render it impossible to borrow money from other nations.

The United States seems to be bent upon waiting for the fires of internal troubles to burn out. The fuel is gradually becoming lower, and the smouldering sticks may be about to flicker and expire.

Our southern neighbor has been unfortunate almost from time immemorial. In fact it has been storm-tossed since the days of Cortez. Probably before the Spanish conquests Montezuma had his troubles with the same obdurate people.

That blessed aion, dreamed of by poets and sung by prophets seems to be still far in the future.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.

Motorcycles and Automobiles Bring Deaths and Injuries.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Motorcycles and automobiles exacted their toll of death and serious injury on the roads of New Jersey yesterday. In the list of victims are three dead and two badly hurt. The dead are Henry B. Purdin, an engineer, of Pensauken, who was killed when his motorcycle struck a trolley car on the outskirts of Camden. Salvatore Berbucini, who was fatally hurt when he essayed to ride a motorcycle without a particle of previous experienc, near Florence, and Mrs. O. G. Schultz, wife of a trolley official of Morristown, who was killed when their automobile collided with another car near Phillipsburg. Mrs. C. A. Alcott, of Riverton, was badly hurt when the motorcycle on which she was riding with her husband struck a large autotruck in Burlington. Enoch Smith, riding a motorcycle, was hurled to the floor of a bridge at Atlantic City by colliding with an automobile, and was badly hurt.

In a collision with a trolley car of the Public Service Railway Company, at Haddon avenue and the Browning road, near Camden, yesterday. Henry B. Purdin, 33 years old, of Pensauken, was hurled from his motorcycle and so badly injured that he died in a few minutes. His neck was broken and his skull fractured.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE BY LIE.

Ordinance Against Fortune Tellers Now to be Enforced.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 24.—The death of Agnes Fairbanks, driven to suicide by a lie told her by Mrs. F. E. Krass, a fortune teller, caused Police Commissioner Reynolds to instruct the police captains of Kansas City to enforce rigidly the city ordinance prohibiting fortune tellers and clairvoyants operating in Kansas City.

Miss Fairbanks committe suicide Thursday night, after visiting the fortune teller. Mrs. Krass had prophesied that her fiance would become a drunkard and beat her cruelly

FIND FARMER A SUICIDE

Friends Call at His Home and Discover His Remains

Georgetown, Del., Nov. 24.—James Jones, a prosperous Gumboro farmer, killed himself some time Saturday night, his body being found yesterday by friends who visited his home. Jones drove a nail in a stick, and, after holding a shot gun to his head, pushed the trigger with the nail. Two years ago his wife left him, and since then he had been making every effort to have her return. Recently he court ordered him to pay $3 a month toward her support.

FIRE IN A CHURCH.

Prelate of 80 Years Rushes Into Blazing New York Edifice.

New York, Nov. 24.—While 600 faithful knelt in the ember strewn street, praying for their safety, five priests, one of whom had just risen from a sickbed, braved flame and smoke early today to rescue the sacred vessels locked in the tabernacle in St. Mary's Star of the Sea Roman Catholic Church.

A great shout of joywent up as the quintet, their cassocks and faces charred by the heat and flames, staggered out of the burning building, the sacred symbols held high above their heads.

Leading the priests was Monsignieur O'Connell, eighty years old, who for two years has been confined to his bed.

The fire damaged the church to the extent of 10,000.

Whisky Dealers Encouraged.

Bristol, Va., Nov. 24.—Whisky dealers in Bristol are encouraged that Judge John Allison, of Nashville, has declared the new law limiting whisky shipments into Tennessee to one gallon to each person unconstitutional. They expess confidence that the State Supreme Court will affirm this view. Only one shipment made since the law became effective exceeded one gallon, and each package has been labelled "for personal use only."

A local distiller, with an interstate shipping license, this week sent a carload of corn whisky to a firm in Knoxville, Tenn., it being represented that the whisky was not to be sold for delivery within Tennessee. This shipment puzzled the friends of law enforcement, who thought the law barred all shipments of quantities larger than one gallon.

A meeting of the White Sox A. C. will be held at 526 Washington St. November 26th, 7:30 p. m.

Arthur Cowsill and the Pacific Coast Casualty Company, a Corporation, Defendants.

Upon application of the plaintiff, it is ordered that all creditors of Arthur Cowsill who have furnished labor or materials to said defendant in connection with the construction of buildings and tanks for wireless telegraph station at United States reservation, at Arlington, Va., for which final settlement by the United States was made December 28, 1912, as set out in the declaration filed in the above cause, be, and they are hereby made parties to this suit, and that they be, and they hereby are, required to file their intervening petition rerein as required by statute.

The object of this suit is to obtain a judgment against the defendants upon the bond given by them to the United States of America to secure the performance of the contract for the buildings and tanks for the wireless telegraph station at the United States Reservation, at Arlington, Virginia, and the prompt payment to all persons supplying labor and materials in the prosecution of said work in the penal sum of twenty one thousand dollars ($21,000.)

And it is further ordered that in order to give notice to such creditors, if there are any, of their right to intervene in this cause, the above order shall be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper of general circulation published in Alexandria, Virginia, for three successive weeks, the last publication to be at least three months before the first of March, 1914, rules to be held in the Clerk's office of the Said Court on the first Monday in March, 1914, which is limited as the time when creditors hereby made parties to this suit shall file their claims.

Witness the Honorable Edmund Waddill, Jr., Judge of the District Court of the United States, this 3rd day of November, 1913, and in the one hundred and thirty-seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America.

November 3, 1913.

Edna L. Scanlon,
Vs. In Chancery.
Thomas P. Scanlon.

Upon the application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of the defendant, the Court on this 15th day of November, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree absolutely divorcing the complainant, Edna L. Scanlon, from the defendant Thomas P. Scanlon on the ground of wilful abandonment and desertion without lawful cause or excuse on the part of the defendant for more than three years last past, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant Thomas P. Scanlon, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia and that he is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Alexandria Gazettee, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of the said city on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant at 1105 Duke street, Alexandria, Va., his last known place of abode.

Spending ten days in a snow dugout, twenty miles in the mountains from Alhambra Springs, Montana, Mike Murray, a prospector, seventy years old, was found by a searching party almost dead from exposure, hunger and cold. Murray was forced by his extreme hunger to kill a colt which had followed his mare from the ranch and eat the raw flesh to keep himself alive. The searching party was formed when friends became alarmed by Murray's long absence on a hunting trip. The old man encountered a terrific snowstorm and was forced to seek shelter in a snowbank. When found he was lying beside his horse to keep warm. He was hurried to Alhambra Springs, where he is under the care of physician.

DISCREDIT WOMAN'S STORY.

Alleged She Killed Marshall Fields, Jr., in Chicago.

Los Angeles, Nov. 24.—Police of this city are mystified over the astonishing story told by Mrs. Vera Scott, now serving a six months' sentence here on a vagrancy charge, in which she claims that she shot and killed Marshall Field, Jr., in Chicago in 1905.

The police have communicated with the Chicago authorities informing them of the substance of her statements involving Field, and will await instructions from Chicago before taking any further action.

Yesterday she reiterated in a statement the story which she told Saturday to the police and newspapermen in which she claimed that she met Field in Chicago several days prior to the time he was shot; that they went about town together; that on the night he was shot he took her to a room in the Everleigh Club; that Field, who had been drinking, freely made proposals that shocked her; that in a struggle that followed she reached for a revolver which was discharged while they wrestled for possession of it, the bullet penetrating his abdomen.

Dispatches from Chicago, the police say, indicate that her story is discredited there in view of the police investigation of Field's death at the time of the tragedy in 1905.

DIVORCES RICHMOND MAN.

Mrs. Annie L. Ritenour Charged Non Support and Inebriety.

Denver, Col., Nov. 24. — Annie Law Ritenour, daughter of W. Law, president of the American Steel and Wire Company, obtained a divorce here Saturday from her husband, Thomas E. Ritnour, of Richmond, Va. The case has been pending in the District Court since October, 1912.

Mrs. Ritnour's petition accused her husband of non-support, habitual drunkenness and cruelty. She asserted that he cursed and struck her and twisted her arms until the pain caused her to scream.

They were married in Dallas, Tex. in 1905. Mrs. Ritenour secured the custody of their adopted child, 6 years old.

NEGROES IN DEATH DANCE.

Want to Burn Body of Colored Man Who Terrorized Neighborhood And Was Shot.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 24.—Nearly 100 infuriated negro men and women executed a weird death dance about the body of James Davis, a negro fugitive, early yesterday morning, after he had been shot and killed for attempting to assault a negress.

The shooting occurred near Price's Corner, three miles from here, the place where George White, a negro was burned at the stake, June 22, 1903, for assaulting and killing Helen S. Bishop, 17 years old, daughter of Rev. A. E. Bishop, a white Presbyterian clergyman.

The negroes did the death dance when their pleas to Coroner Spring to allow them to burn the body of Davis were refused. The coroner, aided by his deputy, had difficulty in preventing a cremation. He also had trouble in dispersing the dancers.

Davis had recently assauted several negro women in the neighborhood. The residents, black and white, were so aroused that they had been armed for two months.

Davis was shot by Ellsworth Longland, a white farmer, and by Isaiah Hilton, a negro, with shotguns.

The death dance was led by Mary Elliott, a negress, who was assaulted on Aprulic road by Davis, two months ago. Davis cut her throat, but she recovered. As the negroes danced they shouted: "Burn the devil's body bring us some fire.'

Longland and Hilton were formally arrested yesterday on a charge of manslaughter. They were released in $500 bail each. There probably will be no prosecution.

Mrs. O. G. Schultz, wife of a contractor of Morristown, N. J., was killed yesterday afternoon near Easton, Pa., when the automobile driven by her husband, O. G. Schultz, struck the rear of a car driven by G. C. Johnston, of New York. Schultz, it is alleged, was driving at a high rate of speed, and in attempting to turn out to pass Johnston's machine which was going in the same direction, miscalculated the distance. The Schultz car, after the collision, shot across the road and overturned. Mrs. Schultz was pinned beneath the tonneau of the machine and was dead when the car was lifted. With Mr. and Mrs. Schultz was Fred Blake, of Morristown. He was hurled fifty feet from the car, but was not seriously hurt. Both cars were wrecked.

The Emerson Engine Company, Incorporated, a Corporation; Victor Lee Emerson, in his own right and as trustee for the Emerson Engine Company, Incorporated; Henry E. Jenkins, Victor F. Emerson, Anita Emerson, Edw. Emerson, Carrol Pierce and Leo. P. Harlow, receivers, of said Emerson Engine Company, Incorporated; Annette E. Emerson; John S. Barbour, counsel for Robert D. Weaver et al, Complainants; Leo. P. Harlow, Counsel for Central Metal Supply Company and other parties and petitioners; Alexandria National Bank; Citizens' National Bank; Howard W Smith, counsel for Henry E Jenkins and other defendants and petitioners; Gardner L. Boothe, and B. W. Parker, Trustees; H. N. Garner, beneficiary; C. E. Nicol; G. W. Lewis, Gardner L. Boothe; Moore, Barbour, Keith and McCandlish, attorneys for various parties in interest and all creditors of the Emerson Engine Co. Inc.; and all other persons claiming liens, or otherwise interested.

You are herby notified that I have fixed upon Tuesday, December 2, 1913, at 10 o'clock A.M. at my said office, as the time and place when and where I shall proceed to commence to execute the Decrees rendered by the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, and entered on September 24, 1913, in the consolidated chancery suits therein pending of Central Metal and Supply Company, a Corporation, and Alexandria County Lighting Company, a Corporation, Complainants, against Emerson Engine Company, Incorporated, a Corporation, Defendant; and of Robert D. Weaver and R. H. Goldsborough, Complainants, against Victor Lee Emerson, in his own right and as Trustee for the Emerson Engine Company, Incorporated. The Emerson Engine Co., Incorporated a Corporation, Henry E. Jenkins, Victor F. Emerson, Anita Emerson, and Edward Emerson, Defendants, whereby I, Robinson Moncure, one of the Master Commissioners of said Court, was directed and required to take, state and report to the Court the following accounts:

1st. Account of the personal assets of the Emerson Engine Company, tangible and intangible stated separately, and an account of the liens thereon, if any, with their priorities.

2nd. An account of the real estate owned by the Emerson Engine Company showing its fee simple and annual value and the liens thereon with their priorities, if any.

3rd. An account showing the liabilities of the Emerson Engine Company with their priorities, if any.

4th. An account showing what stock has been issued by the Emerson Engine Company and is at present outstanding and by whom the same is held.

5th. An account showing what stock of the said company which is outstanding was sold by said Company, to whom it was sold and what was received therefor by the Emerson Engine Company, and from whom received, and by whom the same is now held.

6th. Said Commissioner will report to the Court specially upon the matters stated in the bill in the second of above causes upon what representations the plaintiffs in said bill became interested in the said Emerson Engine Company, by whom such representations were made, whether or not the same were relied on, whether or not the sum were true or false, and whether or not they were fraudulent and if false and fraudulent, or either, whether or not the plaintiffs in said bill are entitled to any of the relief prayed for in said bill, and if so, the extent of such relief and against whom the same should be awarded.

A. And all kreditors of the Emerson Engine Company are hereby notified and warned to present their claims before the said Commissioner and prove the same regularly upon pain of being excluded from any participation in the distribution of the assets of said Company.

B. And said Commissioner will state any other matters specially which any of the parties in interest may desire and which may appear to the Commissioner to be necessary or appropriate to a final decree in these causes.

At which time and place you are required to attend, subject to all proper adjournments and continuances until completion of the reference, and to bring such documents, books, or other written evidence as may be required at any time by said Commissioner.

Given under my hand, as Commissioner in Chancery of said Court, this 31st day of October, 1913.

ROBINSON MONCURE.
Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

About Candy

Lots of Candy has for its best endorsement, dainty color and pretty form—nothing more— this is particularly true of most twenty and thirty cent grades.

Neither color or form signifies purity.

So be guarded!

Buy where you know you are buying absolutely pure as well as good looking candy.

Ours is a safe store. You've known it for years and years. You've never yet gotten an impure piece of candy here. You never will as long as you buy no matter how little the price.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

General Huerta attended the bull fight yesterday at Mexico City. Attended by only two members of his staff, but guarded by a score of detectives, the President entered the bull ring, where 20,000 persons had gathered to see Goana, Mexico's greatest matador, inaugurate the season. General Huerta occupied a box close to the arena. The band played the national hymn and people rose to their feet but there was no cheering. The President left after the killing of the fourth bull.

Thus far in Maine's shooting season, which began on October 1, ten persons have lost their lives by accidental shooting or through being mistaken for deer. One guide was drowned.

Annie Digrio, 9 years old, of Waterbury, Conn., toying with a small rubber balloon yesterday evening, sucked the rubber into her throat and lungs and was dead in a few minutes. The tube was found later sunk into her lung. The flat rubber made an airtight, traplike structure in her throat.

A Philadelphia shipbuilding firm announces the receipt of a contract to build what is said to be the largest ferryboat ever constructed in this country. The specifications for the boat call for a speed of 16 knots an hour. It will be 350 feet long and 50 feet beam. The vessel will cost $500,000, and will be used for ferry trains between Key West and Habana.

It has been announced in Tacoma, Wash., that the Osaka Mercantile Steamship Company will establish a service from the Orient to New York via Honlulu, Panama, Galveston, and New Orleans before 1916. At the same time the present Yokohama-Takoma steamships will be operated to Europe via the Suez Canal. Both lines eventually will be continued across the Atlantic, establishing around-the-world service in both directions via. New York.

"We were married in 1873, and he has beaten me every week since then," declared Mrs. Peter Edwards, when her husband was arraigned before Magistrate Saam in Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday morning. "You haven't missed a beating once a week in 40 years?" questioned the magistrate. "I have not" "He has given me every one of them and some extras. He gave me 15 cents last month and 25 cents this month. I have just come to realize he's no good I think he ought to be sent to the workhouse." "So do I," responded Saam. "Thirty days Edwards."

Fourteen killed and 175 injured players comprise the levy exacted by King Football during the season of 1913, which practically closed with Saturday's games. This record exceeds that of 1912, when thirteen players met death and 153 were injured. The 175 injured represents only those who were incapacitated for several days at least. Only those in which there were broken bones, torn ligaments, broken tendons, internal injuries, and severe sprains, strains, and wrenches are considered in compiling the record. Of the fourteen dead thirteen succumbed to injuries received in accidents this year.

With seven coaches swinging behind his engine, William Carr, engineer, was bringing his express train from Philadelphia to New York yesterday, when just this side of Trenton his locomotive's steam chest exploded. In an instant he was enveloped in steam, and scalding water streamed over him. Carr remained at his post, knowing he must bring his train to a halt. He closed the throttle and threw on the emergency brakes. When the train came to a jarring standstill, trainmen and conductors found Carr unconscious in his cab, his flesh terribly scalded, his hand still on the throttle. He lies in St Peter's Hospital, hovering between life and death.

"The Best Cement in the World"

A very broad saying, and to the novice in construction work might produce a cynical smile, but to the builder and contractor and engineer or architect, the saying is a truism.
